HOT OFF THE PRESS

November 2008

Humor is the lubricating oil of business. It prevents friction and wins good will.

Don't wait for your ship to come in if you haven't sent one out.

It is better to be silent and thought ignorant than to speak and remove all doubt.

A politician is a man who gets sworn in and then cussed out.

Words to Live By

There are four steps to accomplishment:
Plan purposefully. Prepare prayerfully.
Proceed positively. Pursue persistently.

Working hard means going all out until you're all in.

A real home is more than just a roof
over your head - it's a foundation under
your feet.

Like farmers we need to learn that we can't sow and reap the same day.

A pessimist has no motor; an optimist
has no brakes.

Knowledge comes by taking things
apart, but wisdom comes by putting things
together.

There is no acceptable substitute
for honesty; there is no valid excuse for dishonesty.

When a man brings his wife flowers for
no reason - he'd better have one.

Learning history is easy; learning its
lesson is almost impossible.

The head of a college says he is trying to develop an educational institution the football team can be proud of.

There is always a good crop of food for thought. What we need is enough enthusiasm to harvest it.

Monthly Parchment

*I'd like
to be an
optimist,
but I doubt
it would
work out.*

Pictured above is a copy of this month's parchment we print for our friends. It is 8.5x11
and free for you to pick up during your next visit.

You can't do anything about the length of your life. But you can do something about its width and depth.

Lack of confidence is not the result of difficulty; the difficulty comes from lack of confidence.

You can pretend to be serious; you can't
pretend to be witty.

A casual acquaintance is a person you know well enough to talk about and not to.

The son of a wather forecaster told his teacher, "Two and two are four - probably."

Many fans rush to the football stadium
to get good seats - then stand up to watch
the game.

We keep trying to find new ways
to improve the quality of life - while neglecting the ways we already know.

Las Vegas has all kinds of gambling
devices, such as dice, roulette, slot
machines - and wedding chapels.

The wise carry their knowledge as they do their watches - not for display but for their own use.

One of life's major mistakes is being
the last member in the family to get the flu
- after all the sympathy has run out.
