What Year Was It?

First US motel opens; Walter Chrysler founds Chrysler Motor Company; three million die in Chinese famine; 800 die in US tornadoes; Pittsburgh Pirates defeat Washington Senators in World Series; the "Charleston" is a popular dance; Adolph Hitler publishes "Mein Kampf"; George Bernard Shaw wins Nobel Prize for Literature; US population is 116 million; Red Grange quits college to play pro football with Chicago Bears; Knute Rockne and Notre Dame win Rose Bowl.

Don't carry a grudge. While you're carrying the grudge, the other guy is out dancing.

The gift appreciated most is something you made yourself - such as money!

A real friend warms you by his presence, trusts you with his secrets, and remembers you in his prayers.

By the time most fellows have developed the physique to play Santa Claus, the kids no longer believe in him.

Words to Live By

It's Christmas in the heart that puts Christmas in the air.

- W.T. Ellis

for the Friends and Customers of

We go through three stages in life: we believe in Santa Claus; we don't believe in Santa Claus - then we are Santa Claus.

What the New Year brings us will depend a great deal on what we bring to the New Year.

Serious trouble sometimes comes when the New Year's resolutions collide with the old year's habits.

A New Year's resolution is something that goes in one year and out the other.

"Well, Bobby, did you see Santa Claus this time?" his aunt queried.

"No, Auntie. It was too dark to see him, but I heard what he said when he knocked his toe against the bedpost."

It would be a wonderful world if we showed as much patience in all things as we do in waiting for a fish to bite.

A wise man once said that enthusiasm is nothing but faith with a tin can tied to its tail.

Increased earnings nearly always lead to increased yearnings.

A child, like your stomach, doesn't need all you can afford to give it.

Monthly Parchment

*To laugh often and much;
to win respect
of intelligent people
and the affection of children;
to leave the world
a better place;
to know even one life
has been easier
because you have lived.
This is to have succeeded.*

- Ralph Waldo Emerson

Pictured above is a copy of this month's parchment we print for our friends. It is 8.5x11 and free for you to pick up during your next visit.

A small gift will do if your heart is big enough.

A lasting gift to a child is the gift of a parent's listening ear - and heart.

The way you spend Christmas is far more important than how much.

One of our problems is that too many adults and not enough children believe in Santa Claus.

A young performer in the church Christmas program was heard lustily singing: "While shepherds washed their socks by night..."

Perhaps the best Yuletide decoration is being wreathed in smiles.

The best Christmas gift of all is the presence of a happy family, all wrapped up with one another.

A smile is the lighting system of the face and the heating system of the heart.

At Christmas most parents spend more money on their children than they did on the honeymoon that started it all.

Always remember that it is better to give than to receive. Besides, you don't have to write thank-you notes.

There are a lot of great labor saving devices available today. However, it seems you have to work awfully hard so you can afford to buy them.
