What Year Was It?

“Dallas”, the prime-time soap opera, begins; Pete Rose ends 44 game hitting streak; Chrysler hires Lee Iacoca; Pope Paul VI and Pope John Paul I die; Love Canal declared a disaster area; Dallas Cowboys defeat Denver Broncos in Super Bowl; Leon Spinks defeats Muhammad Ali.

A pediatrician was asked by a mother what the best time was to put her children to bed.

“While you still have the strength,” he replied.

The true Christmas ornaments of a home are friends who visit it.

A distinguished looking gentleman in a toy store was entranced with a model train that whistled, belched smoke, deposited milk cans, delivered mail, and did practically everything a real train does. He finally said, “I’ll take it.”

“A wonderful choice!” exclaimed the clerk. “I’m sure that your grandson will love it.”

“Why you’re absolutely right,” said the old gentleman. “I’d better take two.”

Batteries for your grandchildren’s toys cost you about what you used to spend on your own children’s toys.

Tact is the art of making a point without making an enemy.

Christmas gifts sometimes fall into two categories, the ones you didn’t like and the ones you didn’t get.

Words to Live By

The only true gift is a portion of yourself.

There are three ways to get something done. Do it yourself, hire someone to do it for you, or forbid your children to do it.

There's nothing thirstier than a child who has just gone to bed.

Keeping Christmas is good, but sharing it with others is better.

Many Americans no longer celebrate the arrival of the new year. They celebrate the survival of the old year.

For anything worth having, one must pay the price. The price is always work, patience, love and self sacrifice.

A young mother was explaining to her son that Santa Claus was really his father. The boy asked, "Does Dad know?"

Behind every schedule is someone running.

You can't help a person up hill without getting closer to the top yourself.

Don't be annoyed when your children ask impossible questions. Be proud that they think you know the answers.

One of the virtues of being young is that you don't let facts get in the way of your imagination.

Monthly Parchment

of the brain
controls the right side of the body,
then only left-handed people are in their right mind.

Pictured above is a copy of this month's parchment we print for our friends. It is 8.5x11 and free for you to pick up during your next visit.

Show us a home where there are young children, and we'll show you a home where every deck of cards contains between 37 and 51.

Any shoe salesman can tell you, "If the shoe fits, it's the wrong color."

Christmas shopping should include buying toys for the children with which their parents will enjoy playing.

Too many people are cheerful givers only when handing out advice.

Christmas is a time when a lot of others besides Santa find themselves in the red.

May your troubles in the new year be as short lived as your resolutions.

The first thing a child learns when he gets a drum for Christmas is that he is never going to get another one.

Many a child is spoiled because you can't spank his grandparents.

Dear Santa Claus,

I wanna put in a new order for Christmas toys quick. I just found all the things I already asked for under the spare room bed.

Love, Nicole
